<sup>1</sup>The court notes that although the proposed "fourth amended complaint" continues to assert violations of plaintiff's and the public's right to access and observe the wild horse roundups, the plaintiff is precluded from asserting a claim that such conduct violates the First Amendment under this court's previous order of July 23, 2013.

1

1 Pending before the court is the defendants' motion to dismiss
2 plaintiff's second amended complaint. The court will now construe
3 the defendants' motion to dismiss plaintiff's second amended
4 complaint as a motion to dismiss plaintiff's "fourth amended
5 complaint," and defendants are granted leave to supplement the 6 motion on or before September 19, 2013. Any response shall be
7 filed by October 3, 2013, and any reply shall be filed by October
8 15, 2013.

9 IT IS SO ORDERED.

10 DATED: This 28th day of August, 2013.
